Parental Permit For Medical Treatment

The law requires that parental permission be obtained for operative procedures on minors. The following consent form should be signed by the parent so that such procedures may be promptly carried out, and so that no unnecessary delay will occur with operative procedures. However, no operation will be performed, except in the case of emergency, without parents being contacted and fully informed.

Camp Staff

Tripp Keister / Camp Director

Tripp Keister is entering his fourth year as the Head Baseball Coach at Wesley College. In 2006, Tripp was named PAC Coach of the Year. In 2007, he guided Wesley to the most wins ever in school history. As a former scout with the San Diego Padres, Tripp signed four players to professional contracts, including 2003 first round draft pick and current major league pitcher Tim Stauffer.

Tripp was the Head Coach at Delaware State University in 1999-2000 after a two year stint at the University of South Carolina, as an assistant coach. During his coaching tenure, he has coached over 20 players that have gone on to play professional baseball, including current Detroit Tigers shortstop, Adam Everett.

Tripp was a three-time first team all conference outfielder at the University of Delaware, where he was drafted by the New York Mets in the 1992 Major League Draft.

Bret Underwood / Camp Coordinator

Bret Underwood is also entering his fourth season as an assistant baseball coach at Wesley College, where he works with the hitters and infielders. Bret was a four year starter at Delaware State University, where he was one of the most prolific hitters in school history. He ranks in the top three in hits, HR, RBI, runs and extra base hits. After completing his senior season at Delaware State, Bret signed a free agent contract with the Boston Red Sox.
